

What People Are Saying About Words Can Work Town Hall Meetings

“Thank you, Jeanne Blake for leading the Massachusetts charge against bullying, at all levels, in our schools. You have armed us with powerful stories, expert panels, and superb organization and dissemination. We must bring awareness and clear policy into our schools and community, NOW.”

“Thank you! Amazing Forum and I will attend future Words Can Work forums!”

“Wonderful information and extremely helpful to have questions and answers with the panel of experts in the field. Thank you and I look forward to attending future presentations”

“This community forum was truly powerful!”

“This was an excellent forum and needs to be replicated across the state. Wonderful discussion of depression, children, adults, and families and a wonderful informational format for communities.”

“This was phenomenal! My mind is turning in order to figure out ways that my staff and I can get more involved in reaching out and offering more services for those in need. Thank you for this forum!”

“I thought that the forum was well done and had a powerful message. Thanks for bringing a critical issue to the general public in an honest, real way that encourages discussion.”

“Very informative and educational. This was a great learning experience.”

“CONGRATULATIONS! As the Principal of a high school who is responsible for being the Chair of the Safety Committee for the town’s schools, I want to tell you this forum was on of the BEST that I have ever attended.”

“I enjoyed today’s forum and congratulate Jeanne Blake for putting together such an enlightening event. Thank you for making a world of difference in the lives of our children and parents and providing the tools for educators, health providers and stakeholders in our efforts to educate, inform and prevent the use of steroids.”

“Thank you, I thought this was one of the best presentations I have been to!”

“I really enjoyed the forum this morning; great speakers with a wealth of information!”

“Just a little note to compliment and thank you for your latest Words Can Work Symposium. What a fabulous forum--the timely topic, the panels of experts, the stimulating conversations; it was all good. Brava!”

“Grateful thanks to Jeanne Blake for putting together such an important forum, with so many experts, in such a superb venue. I look forward to more conferences on this topic of fundamental importance to our personal, state and national well-being.”
