

JEANNE BLAKE: KEYNOTE SPEAKER/MODERATOR/EMCEE AND FACILITATOR

Multimedia Keynote Presentations

Jeanne Blake's dynamic multimedia presentations take her audience into kids' worlds. In their own words, young people describe resisting and struggling with challenges ranging from bullying, substance abuse and early sexual activity, to stress and depression. They describe how talking with trusted adults in their lives makes all the difference. With wisdom and humor, Blake offers insight, communication strategies and the words that can help start and continue these potentially lifesaving conversations.

"Jeanne has a lot of experience and knowledge and great speaking skills – fast moving presentation – I like the takeaway materials, too."

"Jeanne Blake is a very talented speaker - very engaged and clearly passionate about a very interesting subject."

Moderator and Emcee

Whether Jeanne Blake is moderating a corporate event, annual meeting, or a community town hall meeting, she keeps it smart, compelling, on track and on time.

"A BIG thanks for a spectacular job as emcee for our annual event. We heard many comments about how perfectly you set the tone for the evening. Thanks for your great ideas for the program and for your smooth and smart words throughout."

Penny Wells, Executive Director
SADD National

"Working with Jeanne is a wonderful partnership for Partners HealthCare. We sponsor a series of Words Can Work community forums featuring Blake's films on childhood obesity, bullying and depression. Using her skills and knowledge as a medical journalist, author, and affiliated faculty member at Harvard Medical School, Jeanne deftly and expertly facilitates discussion between hundreds of audience participants and panel members, and guides them toward positive strategies for dealing with challenging issues."

Ronnie Sanders
Director Community Health Partners HealthCare

"This Words Can Work forum was the best one yet! Jeanne Blake was masterful in facilitating and demonstrates a depth of knowledge about childhood obesity and healthy lifestyles."

"Exceptional forum! Jeanne Blake always does a great job moderating these events and keeping the discussion on track."

Online Webinar and Webcast Facilitator

Jeanne Blake facilitates online webinars and webcasts. She facilitated a webinar co-hosted by Harvard-affiliated McLean Hospital featuring the Words Can Work DVD Bullying: True Stories. Blake interviewed two internationally respected bullying experts and fielded questions from 400 webinar participants.

"Through your moderating of this Webinar, you have raised the bar for all future Webinars. Brilliant job!"

"Great seminar. Very well done. The knowledge gained helps me better deal with this issue."
